Présentation de l'éditeur

The Street Is Watching is a street photography anthology that brings together the most representative and iconic images of urban culture, ranging from the '70s to today, and which shows the evolution and the spirit of urban photography through the vision of both masters and young generations of photographers.

Biographie de l'auteur

Paulo Lucas von Vacano has been immersed in the urban and contemporary art scene for decades. As an Italian-German journalist, he contributed to several international magazines and newspapers: Has served as president of both Castelvechi Publishing Company publishing 500 books and several magazines among them Posse of Toni Negri and Aspenia Magazine (of The Aspen Institute). He curated several exhibitions and created the concept that every book is a cultural platform that penetrates the amniotic sac of globalization
