Revue de presse

'If I wrote travel guides I d like to think that they would turn out like this one. It fits in a coat pocket, weighs 8oz, and although it had some rough use there was no sign of it falling apart'. --John Clarke, a user reviewing the book on amazon.com

Présentation de l'éditeur

A practical guidebook to walking the West Highland Way that runs for 96 miles (154.5km) from Glasgow to Fort William. This West Highland Way walking guide includes: 53 large-scale walking maps - at just under 1:20,000, and 26 guides to towns and villages. Itineraries for all walkers - whether walking the whole Way or the highlights on day walks and short breaks. Where to stay - campsites, hostels, B&Bs, guesthouses and hotels with reviews. Where to eat - cafes, pubs, tearooms, takeaways and restaurants with reviews. What to see - historical, cultural and natural points of interest. Comprehensive public transport information - for all access points on the West Highland Way. Flora and wildlife, four page colour guide, plus illustrated chapter on local plants, birds and animals. GPS waypoints - also downloadable from the Trailblazer website. Extra colour sections: 16pp colour introduction and 16pp of colour mapping for stage sections (one stage per page) with trail profiles (showing ascents and descents), and complete West Highland Way map.
